

Pictured: Original Master Plan

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Point of Beginning provided civil engineering, architectural design, and construction services for the development of the outdoor athletic facility for Hudson School District’s High School located in Hudson, Wisconsin. This project is to be constructed in the summer of 2017 and will consist of a 9 Million Dollar site to include a synthetic turf field, softball fields, running track, bleacher seating for 3,000 spectators, concessions, and bathrooms.

SERVICES PROVIDED

Site Evaluation, Master Planning, Construction Documents, Storm Water Management, Permit Preparation, Bleacher Vendor Selection Process, Synthetic Turf Vendor Selection Process, Bid Coordination, Construction Services, Camera Installation and Removal, Website Administration.

Project Manager: Jim Lundberg | Project Budget: $9 Million | Reference: Nick Ouellette, Superintendent